Performance poetry, spoken word and self-expression holiday course

for 6-17 year olds

Hosted by the current Byron Bay and NSW Poetry Slam Champion, Sarah Lock; Let's Slam! is a holiday program designed to nurture a love and appreciation for all things language and literature in our younger generations. Participants will be guided through the process of crafting their own performance poems and considerably encouraged to perform their pieces in front of an audience at the end of the course. Sarah utilises a range of fun and engaging, age-appropriate exercises to help spark creativity and prompt the writing process. Employing the skills they will have acquired in crafting and delivering their work, young learners will be emboldened with self-confidence to proudly present their views, thoughts and feelings and make their voices heard. Sign your child up today and support them in cultivating their communicative creativity this summer!

To register your interest in this course, please fill in the form provided on this site. A minimum number of applicants is required for the course to proceed. Sarah will be in contact once your registration has been received.
